KEYNOTE SPEAKER Cathy B. Purvis Founding Executive Director Children's Advocacy Centers of NC

Cathy B. Purvis is the Founding Executive Director of Children's Advocacy Centers of North Carolina (CACNC). She received her Bachelor of Arts Degree from Mars Hill College in 1970 and a Master of Arts Degree in Sociology from the University of Louisville in 1974. For 30 years, Purvis has been actively involved in improving services to child victims of crime through her work as a co-founder and Chair of the Board for the NC Coalition Against Sexual Assault, member of the Board of Directors of the NC Professional Society on the Abuse of Children and a member of the Board of Directors and President for the NC Victim Assistance Network.

Purvis was also a co-founder and President of the Board for the Children's Advocacy Centers of North Carolina, and from 1996 until 2001 served on the Board of the National Children's Alliance where she served as Co-Chair of the first State Chapter committee. Purvis was elected President of the National Children's Alliance in 2000, and in 2001 was appointed by Lt. Governor Beverly Perdue to serve on the NC Sentencing Commission.

Since 2004, Purvis has served as Executive Director of Children's Advocacy Centers of North Carolina and has been responsible for the tremendous growth of CACs across the state. CACNC is an accredited state chapter of the National Children's Alliance. In 2013, Purvis was the recipient of the prestigious National Children's Alliance "Outstanding Chapter Leader Award." Purvis is retiring from CACNC in September 2014.

PLENARY SPEAKER Richard Love President/CEO National Crimes Against Children Training Center

Detective Richard Love is retired after 25 years with the City of Fort Lauderdale Police Department. For 23 years, he was assigned to the Special Investigations Division, investigating major narcotic trafficking, gambling, extortion, prostitution and racketeering cases. In 1998, he was assigned to the Broward County Sheriff's Office Internet Crimes Against Children Task Force (ICAC) investigating Internet crimes against children. For 5.5 years he was employed as a consultant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation Crimes Against Children Unit in Miami, Florida. In 1999, he received an award from the National Center for Missing & Exploited Children for his online investigative work. In 2001, he was named the Law Enforcement Against Child Harm (LEACH) Investigator of the Year, and the United States Attorney's Office Southern District of Florida Outstanding Law Enforcement Officer of the Year. He has also received an award from Robert Muller III, Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, for his undercover work in a Group 1 operation targeting individuals requesting the sexual services of children in and outside the United States.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Registration form(s) and payment are required for each participant to guarantee registration. Registration forms must be postmarked by August 30 to qualify for the early registration rates. If registration is postmarked after this date, additional registration fees will apply.

Make checks payable to CACNC and mail with registration form(s) to:

CACNC, P.O. Box 6312, High Point, NC 27262

If payment will be delayed, contact Angie Brown at Apbrown@northstate.net or at (336) 886-4589, ext. 2 to communicate this delay and make necessary arrangements to qualify for the pre-registration rates, if applicable.

An administrative fee of $35 will be assessed for checks returned for insufficient funds.

Registration fees include symposium materials, light breakfast and coffee each morning, lunch on September 23 and 24, afternoon breaks and a Certificate of Attendance.

NEW for 2014: Handouts will be available for download prior to the Symposium.

Information related to accessing these handouts will be communicated to registered participants upon receipt of registration form(s) and payment. Conference discs will not be provided this year.

Symposium registration must be cancelled in writing (email is acceptable) and those refunds will be issued after the symposium. There will be no refunds after August 30, 2014; however, registration may be transferred to another person. In the event of transferred registration, contact the CACNC office as soon as possible with this change to ensure that symposium materials (badges, registration and certificates) are printed with the correct name.

Symposium registration does not include lodging. All training activities will be held at the Terrace Hotel and the Harrell Center Auditorium (directly across from the Terrace) at Lake Junaluska. Online reservations for lodging are available until August 24, 2014 at www.lakejunaluska.com. Please use access or group code #6469 to secure the state rate. After August 24th, you must call Lake Junaluska at (800) 222-4930 to reserve rooms.

Application for Continuing Education Units (CEU), NBCC credit approval for LPC's, Continuing Legal Education (CLE) credits and Criminal Investigation Certificate Program (CICP) credits have been made to the Western Carolina University Continuing Education Department, the North Carolina State Bar and the North Carolina Justice Academy.

Enrollment and/or payment for these credits will be available in the registration area. If a fee applies to these credits, the responsibility for payment will be with the participant. This cost has not been included in the registration fees.

All registered participants will be issued a Certificate of Attendance. These will be available at the end of the last day the participant is scheduled to attend the symposium. These certificates will not be mailed after the symposium. It is the participant's responsibility to collect this certificate upon departure from the symposium.

Participants are encouraged to pick up symposium materials at the Terrace Hotel lobby on Monday evening, September 22 from 4:30 – 6:30 p.m. The registration area will be open daily at 8:00 a.m. beginning Tuesday, September 23.

ATTENTION MEDICAL PROVIDERS:

A specialized child medical track will run concurrently with these multi-disciplined sessions.

A separate brochure and registration form will soon be available for download at www.cacnc.org. CACNC is seeking CME approval from the UNC School of Medicine for these specialized medical workshops as well as several of the multi-disciplined workshops featured in this brochure. Visit our website for more information and updates.
